(Synopsis)

Chapter 12

"CRIMSON NIGHTS"

"DAYS OF '49"

Sonora reaches Judge Coleman in San Francisco and asks aid for Sutter to save his land from the horde of gold-seekers. He tells her he cannot aid her unless she gets Sutter's land grant from Boris.

Scenes of the orgy of crime in San Francisco and the organization of the Vigilance Committee by Judge Coleman and leading citizens. They are misled by the criminals led by Marsden, into believing Boris is the ring-leader in crime and direct their men to get him at once. Sonora overhearing this tries to find Boris to save him and get the land grant for Sutter. She decides the only way is to go to the "Log Palace" a notorious resort on Telegraph Hill, run by Arabella and Marsden where she feels Boris will come to her rescue.

She goes there disguised as a Spanish dancer and is recognized by Arabella. They decide to keep her there for a time. She dances for the crowd and Marsden seizes her in his arms. "Cal" who has just come in rushes to her rescue and knocks Marsden down. The latter draws his gun and shoots at "Cal" but Sonora falls and is surrounded by the crowd.

End of Chapter 12.
